

Art on the Floor

A collaboration of industry and education is giving aspiring designers the opportunity to taste the commercial realities of the industry.

“Art on the Floor”, a design competition open to the International School of Colour and Design’s Foundation Course students has culminated in the production of five Designer Rugs originals.

The finalist designs, chosen from 500 submissions, have been

*Olivia Dilks of Dee Why was a finalist in the ‘Art on the Floor’
rug design competition.*